drip action takes as it's remit the production of new and lesser known work, in intimate surroundings. Home productions are performed in our studio theatre at the Victoria Club, Arundel, West Sussex and at midsummer, at the atmospheric Chapel Barn, South Stoke, also in West Sussex.

One of drip action's more recent innovations is the creation of the Arundel Theatre Trail for the town's annual summer festival, when, each day, eight different half hour plays are staged consecutively at different venues throughout the town - in all, a grand total of sixty four performances.

drip action was awarded charitable status in 1995 for it's staging of innovative and educational theatre.
